

MI'KMAQ

HISTORY MONTH | OCTOBER 2017

• EVENT LISTINGS •

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4

Medicine Walk with Tuma Young, CBU Campus 10:00am - 11:20am

Join Tuma Young, Assistant Professor of Mi'kmaq Studies, for a medicine walk behind the University on their walking trail by the brook. Tuma will teach about some of the traditional Mi'kmaq medicines and how different plants were used by the Mi'kmaq. The group will meet outside the entrance by Unama'ki College and leave at 10:00am to proceed on the walk. Please dress appropriately for the weather. This event is open to all CBU students, staff, and faculty, as well as the general public.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Trivia Hour, Upper Cafeteria Area 12:00 - 1:00pm

Drop by the cafeteria at lunch time to participate in our Mi'kmaq History Month Trivia Hour and find out how much you know about Cape Breton's local First Nations people. This event is open to all CBU students, staff, and faculty, as well as the general public.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Paint Night with Rebecca Scirocco, Multipurpose Room CE241 6:00pm - 9:00pm

Join us for an Indigenous themed paint night for Mi'kmaq History Month. This paint night will be put on by CBU graduate and Membertou resident, Rebecca Scirocco. Coffee, tea and light snacks will be provided. Cost for this event is $30 per person and RSVP is required. Please RSVP by end of day Thursday, October 5, to Ann Terese Doucette at ann_doucette@cbu.ca. This event is open to the general public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12

Waltes, Multipurpose Room CE241 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Drop in for a game of waltes during lunch time. Waltes is a traditional Mi'kmaq dice-and-bowl game played between two people. There will be several games set up during this time so feel free to drop in and play a game.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 16

Paint Night with Michelle Sylliboy, Multipurpose Room CE241 4:00pm - 7:00pm

Join us for an Indigenous themed paint night for Mi'kmaq History Month. This paint night will be put on by Michelle Sylliboy a resident of Waycobah. She will be hosting a Mi'kmaq hieroglyphic (komqwejwk'kasikl) painting workshop. Come and learn about the original Mi'kmaq language and create a komqwejwk'kasikl original masterpiece! Coffee, tea and light snacks will be provided. Cost for this event is $30 per person and RSVP is required. Please RSVP by end of day Thursday, October 12, to Ann Terese Doucette at ann_doucette@cbu.ca. This event is open to the general public.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18

Trivia Hour, Upper Cafeteria Area 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Drop by the cafeteria at lunch time to participate in our Mi'kmaq History Month Trivia Hour and find out how much you know about Cape Breton's local First Nations people. This event is open to all CBU students, staff, and faculty, as well as the general public.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Kluskap Ridge Presentation, CC263

Presented by the Purdy Crawford Chair in Aboriginal Business Studies at CBU, this Indigenous entrepreneurship presentation will feature the management of the new Mi'kmaq-owned Kluskap Ridge RV & Campground in Englishtown, Nova Scotia.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26

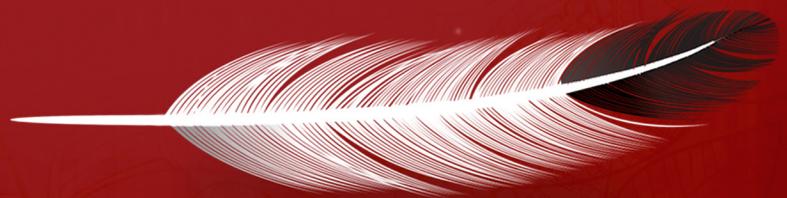

Mini Powwow, Upper Cafeteria Area 12:00pm - 2:00pm

Come join us for CBU's Mini Powwow for Mi'kmaq History Month. This event will feature dancing, drumming, and traditional Mi'kmaq food and culture. This event is open to the general public.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26

Gathering at CBU to talk about L'nu/Mi'kmaq/ Indigenous education, culture and language issues, RBC Lecture Theatre CE258 2:00pm - 3:30pm

CBU and Chief Leroy Denny of Eskasoni are hosting a gathering to talk about L'nu/Mi'kmaq/Indigenous education, culture and language issues that will focus on Mi'kmaq Students at CBU. If you have an interest in current and future state of L'nu/Mi'kmaq/Indigenous education and culture at CBU, this event is for you. This event is open to all CBU students, staff, and faculty, as well as the general public.

Cape
Breton
University

CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY
UNAMA'KI
COLLEGE

