Article 1 - Purposes of this Agreement

- 1.01 The Parties acknowledge that those objectives and purposes of the University, as an institution of higher and applied learning, which are relevant to their relationship, are the attainment of high standards of academic achievement, the advancement of learning, and the pursuit, dissemination and application of knowledge.
- The Parties and the individuals whom they represent recognize and agree that they each, collectively and individually, have a responsibility to encourage within the University a climate of intellectual freedom, responsibility, and mutual respect which is conducive to the achievement of these objectives and purposes.
- 1.02 The Parties agree that other purposes of this Agreement are to establish specific contractual provisions, to promote and maintain harmonious and fair relationships between the Parties, and to provide means acceptable to both parties for settling disputes that may arise between them from time to time.
- 1.03 Cape Breton University is committed to high-quality, accessible education; innovative research; and a vibrant, multicultural future for the island of Cape Breton. This Agreement is intended to provide the flexibility of operation necessary to support the University's mission, vision, values and strategic directions. The emerging patterns of programs within the University require assignment of teaching duties across the normal lines with another academic bargaining unit.
- 1.04 Existing practices or procedures of personnel not covered by this Agreement performing work similar to that done by employees in the Bargaining Unit shall not be changed by this Agreement, provided that this does not cause the layoff of any employee in the Bargaining Unit.

Article 2 - Definitions

- 2.01 (a) "Bargaining unit" means all employees in continuing full-time appointments, probationary and term employees as per Article 13.12 (a) and (b), but excluding any Dean and Administrator above that position.
- The present practice of Deans teaching may continue provided this does not cause an employee in the bargaining unit to be laid off, or cause an employee's recall rights to be denied.
- (b) "Continuing full-time employment" means the employment of an employee for an indefinite ongoing duration (sometimes referred to as "permanent" employment) subject to layoff, retirement, resignation, or other termination of employment for reasons specified in this Agreement. Such employment does not include an appointment for a specified term (see Article 13.08).
- (c) "Day", unless otherwise stated, means a work day.
- (d) "Employee" means a person included in the bargaining unit.

- (e) "Employer" means the Board of Governors of the Cape Breton University or its delegated representatives.
- (f) "Instructor" shall include all levels of Instructor and Laboratory Technologist.
- (g) "Lay Off" means a suspension of active employment as a result of a reduction of work required to be done by the Employer.
- (h) "Leave of Absence Without Pay" means to be absent from duty with permission, but without pay.
- (i) "Local" means Local 18 of the Nova Scotia Government & General Employees' Union.
- (j) "Lockout" means the closing of a place of employment, a suspension of work, or a refusal by the Employer to continue to employ a number of his employees, done to compel his employees, or to aid another Employer to compel his employees to agree to terms or conditions of employment.
- (k) "Resignation" means voluntary termination of employment initiated by an employee.
- (l) "Rest Period" means a paid interval which is included in the work day and is intended to give the employee an opportunity to have refreshments or a rest.
- (m) "Same Sex and Common Law Spouse" – Spouse means husband or wife; or in the case of a same sex or common law spouse means a person who, for at least a one year continuous period, lives with an employee in an intimate relationship.
- (n) "Seniority" means total accumulated continuous employment within the bargaining unit from date of hire. The date of hire shall be the commencement date of the most recent period of continuous employment in a position in the bargaining unit subject to the attached Schedule "IV" listing seniority of employees in the bargaining unit. Continuity of employment will be broken by any period of loss of employment, other than layoff, of thirty (30) calendar days or more.
- (o) "Service" means the total of years of employment with the Employer (in positions in the bargaining unit and outside of the bargaining unit) where there is no break in such employment of two (2) years or greater and shall be used with respect to those benefits of this Agreement which are based upon service. No period of employment which is less than eight (8) continuous months shall be counted as service and a period of employment of eight (8) continuous months or more within any twelve (12) calendar month period shall be counted as one year's service.

e.g. Employee is employed in a non-bargaining unit position from 1988 - 1994, both dates inclusive, has a break in service, is re-employed for a five (5) month term in 1998, has a further break in service, then is re-employed for a period of eight (8) months within the period September 1999 - September 2000, has a further break in service and is then re-employed in a bargaining unit position continuously from January 1, 2001 to December 31, 2002. That employee's service total as of December 31, 2002, is calculated as follows:

- i) 1988 -1994 – does not count because of greater than two (2) year break in service before next employment;
- ii) 1998 - five (5) month term - does not count because it is less than eight (8) months in duration;
- iii) September 1999 - September 2000 - eight (8) month employment counts as one (1) years' service;
- iv) January 1, 2001 - 31 December 2002 - counts as two (2) years' service.

Total service as at December 31, 2002 = 3 years.

The following exception will apply to the above. An employee whose employment is terminated under Article 38 and who receives severance or both severance and service award and who is subsequently rehired by the Employer will begin to accrue service as of the new date of hire even if the break in employment was less than two (2) years.

If an employee resigns and is subsequently re-employed at the University, the new service date will be the new date of hire.

- (p) "Strike" means a cessation of work, or refusal to work, by employees in combination or in concert or in accordance with a common understanding.
- (q) "Termination" means the separation of an employee from his employment with the Employer.
- (r) "Union" means the Nova Scotia Government & General Employees Union.

2.02 Unless any provisions of this Agreement otherwise specify, words in the masculine gender shall include the female gender and words in the female gender shall include the male gender.

2.03 This Collective Agreement will be the agreement under which all negotiable items are bargained.

Article 3 - Recognition

3.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for employees in the bargaining unit.

3.02 It is agreed that where this Agreement specifies official written communication between the Employer and the Union, such communication will be effected by the Union when it sends such communication to the Director, Human Resources of the Employer or his/her delegate and by the Employer when it sends such communication to the Employee Relations Officer or his/her delegate, together with a copy to the President of Local 18, Nova Scotia Government & General Employees Union.

- 3.03 The provisions of this Agreement are binding on the Employer, the Union and the employees.
- 3.04 No member of the bargaining unit shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer which conflicts with the terms of this Agreement.

Article 4 - Future Legislation

In the event that any law passed by the Legislature, applying to the employees covered by this Agreement, renders null and void any provisions of this Agreement, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement.

Article 5 - No Discrimination

The Parties agree that there will be no discrimination on the basis of:

race
religion colour sex

physical or mental disability

except where, as recognized by the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act, any of the aforementioned bases is either a bona fide qualification or reasonably precludes performance of the employee's duties and responsibilities, or is a reasonable limit prescribed by law as can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society, subject, however, to the Parties' respective duties to accommodate.

Article 6 - Management

- 6.01 It is the exclusive function of the Employer to manage, which, subject to the terms of this Agreement, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes the right to determine employment, appointment, complement, organization, work methods and procedures, kinds and location of equipment, size, location and arrangement of work space, discipline and termination of employment, assignment, classification, job evaluation system, merit system, training and development, appraisal, and the principles and standards governing promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, and reappointment.

- 7.02 The Employer shall not cause a lockout during the term of this Agreement.

- 9.04 The Employer agrees to provide the Union such information relating to employees in the bargaining unit that may reasonably be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

Article 10 - Stewards

- 10.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint up to four (4) employees as stewards, the names of whom the Union will provide to the Employer in writing on a current basis.
- 10.02 The Union shall determine the jurisdiction of each steward having regard to the plan or organization, the distribution of employees at the workplace, and the administrative structure implied by the grievance procedure.
- 10.03 It is understood that the stewards and members of the Union have their regular work to perform on behalf of the Employer. It is acknowledged that grievances should be presented and serviced as soon as possible and that, if it is necessary to service a grievance during working hours, employees will not leave their jobs without giving an explanation for leaving, and obtaining the Employer's permission. Permission will not be unreasonably withheld. The steward shall report back to his Employer before resuming the normal duties of his position.

Article 11 - Checkoff

- 11.01 The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the bi-weekly pay of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular monthly dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.
- 11.02 The Union shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized deduction to be checked off for each employee mentioned in Article 11.01.
- 11.03 For the purpose of applying Article 11.01, deductions from pay for each employee will start with the first bi-weekly pay period of employment.
- 11.04 The amounts deducted in accordance with Article 11.01 in each month shall be remitted to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union within ten (10) days of the date of the last deduction made in that month, and shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each employee and the deductions made on his behalf and a copy sent to the President of the Local.

11.05 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article, except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer.

11.06 The Employer shall advise the Local President of the appointment of each new probationary or continuing full-time employee, or of the cancellation or termination of each such appointment within five (5) work days after the date of such appointment, cancellation, or termination, unless circumstances warrant an extension of this period.

Article 12 - Time Off for Union Business

12.08 Information and Alternative Arrangements

- (a) For better certainty, the Union will confirm to the Employer its authorization of the leaves in writing, including the names of employees to be granted leaves under Article 12.01, 12.03, 12.04, and 12.05(b), and the beginning and end dates of such leaves.

Article 13 - Appointments

13.01 Probationary

An employee appointed to a probationary appointment shall be on probation for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months, subject however, to the right of the Employer, in its discretion, to extend the probationary period for up to an additional twelve (12) months.

- (d) In cases of birth, an employee intending to take parental leave shall inform their managing supervisor and the Director, Human Resources as soon as possible, but no less than thirty (30) working days in advance of the

A one (1) week waiting period may apply depending on the employee's circumstances.
 - ii. for an employee in receipt of extended EI parental leave benefits (up to 61 weeks), the same total amount of supplemental benefit as would have been received if the employee had opted for standard EI parental leave benefits as provided in (i). On the birth or adoption of a child, the parent who has not applied for parental leave benefits or is not in receipt of Employment Insurance benefits, shall be granted special leave with pay up to a maximum of three (3) working days which may be divided and taken in up to three (3) separate days. The leave shall be arranged in consultation with the managing supervisor and the Director, Human Resources and must be taken within four (4) months of the birth or adoption. Notice of intention to take such leave shall be given as soon as possible, but no less than thirty (30) working days in advance of the commencement of such leave. In the case of illness of a member of an employee's immediate family, meaning his/her husband, wife, son, daughter, father, mother and when no one at home other than the employee can provide for the needs of the ill person, the employee may be granted, after notifying his/her supervisor, leave with pay of up to three (3) days for the purpose of making such arrangements as are necessary to permit the employee's return to work. Such leave shall be charged against the employee's sick leave accumulation as provided in Article 42. The Employer may require proof of the need for such leave as it considers necessary.

15.07 Leave for Emergency

An employee shall, upon request, be granted leave of absence with pay up to two (2) days for a critical condition which requires his personal attention resulting from an emergency (flood, fire, etc.) which cannot be served by others or attended to by the employee at a time when he is normally off duty. The Employer may require proof of the need for such leave as it considers necessary.

15.08 Leave for Adoption of Child

Upon request, and having completed his/her initial probationary period, an employee shall be granted leave of absence without pay pursuant to clause 15.04 hereof. The employee shall have to furnish proof of adoption. Where both parents are Cape Breton University employees, the employees will decide which of them will apply for the leave.

15.09 Personal Leave

In addition, the employee shall not accumulate any seniority and normally not accrue service towards any service-based benefits unless the leave is granted to allow the employee to assume a temporary non-bargaining unit position with the Employer. The employee may continue benefits coverage during such leave subject to the terms of the benefits plans and provided he/she pays both Employer and employee portions of the required premiums.

15.10 Leave for Storms

In the event that storm or other circumstances interrupt the normal operation of the University, essential services will be maintained and management will exercise discretion in determining the employee's necessity to maintain such services. Where an employee in the bargaining unit assumes a non-bargaining unit position with the Employer, that employee must return to the bargaining unit no more than five (5) years after assuming the non-bargaining unit position or forfeit all union status including seniority. During such absence from the bargaining unit, the employee will not accumulate bargaining unit seniority.

- (n) Any other day, or part of a day, declared by the Employer or the provincial or federal governments to be a holiday for all employees.

16.02 When a day designated as a holiday coincides with the employee's day of rest, the Employer shall grant the holiday with pay on either:

- (a) the working day immediately following his day of rest; or

- (b) the day following the employee's annual vacation, or another day mutually acceptable between the Employer and employee.

16.03 Where a day that is designated a holiday for an employee as defined in Article 16.01 falls within a period of leave with pay, the holiday shall not count as a day of leave.

16.04 Where a day that is designated a holiday, as defined above, falls within a period when the employee is on sick leave as defined in Article 42, he shall be deemed to have received full credit for the holiday.

16.05 Compensation for Work on a Holiday

Where an employee is required to work on a paid holiday, as defined in Article 16.01, he will receive compensation equal to two and one-half (2½) times his regular rate, as follows:

- (b) time off with pay in lieu of the holiday on an hour-to-hour basis at a mutually acceptable time prior to the end of the calendar month immediately following the month in which the holiday fell.

Article 17 - Professional Development

17.01 Purpose and Funding Commitment

- (a) The Employer recognizes that it is in the interests of employees, students and the Employer that employees be given opportunity by the Employer to pursue professional development activities through academic or technical studies, pure or applied research, or participation in industry or in the community where such activities will enhance the qualifications and/or abilities of the employees to fulfil their employment/professional responsibilities.
- (b) The Employer commits to provide sufficient funding annually to allow for meaningful professional development opportunities for the employees.

17.02 Professional Development Resources Allowance ("the Allowance")

The Employer will reimburse an eligible employee up to $1,000 (as of April 1, 2019 reimbursement will be up to $1,100) per fiscal year of the University for expenses he incurs for eligible professional development expenses ("eligible expenses"), upon provision to the University of suitable receipts subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) The funds for such allowances will be administered by the School Deans. Any portion of a Member's maximum that is not claimed in a fiscal year shall be carried forward into a subsequent fiscal year. A maximum of three (3) years' amounts (i.e. two years plus the current year) may be accumulated in this manner.

- (b) For purposes of this clause, eligible expenses include:
- i) memberships in relevant professional or technical organizations;
 - ii) subscriptions to journals or like publications (including, where appropriate, in electronic form) relevant to the employee's discipline;
 - iii) purchase or lease of books, software and manuals relevant to the employee's discipline;
 - iv) other similar relevant resources.
- (c) Employees may submit a claim for reimbursement of eligible expenses once in any fiscal year (April 1 to March 31) and such claim will include receipts for expenses incurred within that fiscal year and will be considered the PD claim for that year. Original receipts for eligible expenses must be submitted in support of the claim.

A grace period of two weeks following the March 31 cut-off will be allowed and submissions made during the grace period will be considered on time for the year ending March 31.

Claims submitted after April 14 of any year will not be considered.

If an employee wishes to make a claim for PD that is not specifically noted under article 17.02 (b), but considers it may fall under 17.02 (b) (iv) "other similar relevant resources", the employee must contact the Dean in advance to seek clarification on whether or not the claim will be approved.

The Parties agree to abide by any ruling of the Canadian Revenue Agency (CRA) made with respect to the provisions of this article.

Term employees whose appointment is for eight (8) months or more are eligible only for this Allowance.

17.03 Professional Development Leave

Employees may apply for and the Employer shall grant professional development leave ("PDL") subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) Such leaves will be for not less than one (1) full academic term [in exceptional cases, consideration may be given to a period shorter than one (1) full academic term] and not more than twelve (12) months in duration (in exceptional cases, consideration may be given to a period greater than one (1) year either on initial application or an extension of an existing leave);
- (b) Only employees in continuing full-time employment who have completed their probationary period may apply for PDL. Employees who have received a PDL of twelve (12) months or more in duration will not be eligible for a further PDL of that length until five (5) years after completion of the first PDL;

- (c) Applications for PDL will be submitted in writing by the employee to her School Dean by not less than nine (9) months (in exceptional or unforeseen circumstances, provided budgetary and operational circumstances permit, consideration may be given to an application made on lesser notice), prior to the proposed commencement date of the leave and shall contain a detailed statement of the nature, purpose, and perceived benefits to the University and the employee of such PDL;
- (d) Factors to be taken into account by the University in assessing merits of applications include:
 - i) relevance to the curriculum and programme directions of the University;
 - ii) the likelihood that such PDL will enhance the employee's qualifications and/or abilities to better perform his employment responsibilities.

If the number of applications being considered for PDL exceeds two (2) in any year, then the Employer shall consider:

- i) the length of the employees' most recent continuous service at the University;
 - ii) the length of time since the employees last had a PDL (or education, sabbatical, or industrial leave under a former Collective Agreement).
- (e) Where, following assessment of the factors referred to in the above paragraphs, there are candidates for such leave who would otherwise have applications of sufficient merit to be granted a PDL ("eligible employees") except that there is insufficient funding or operational reasons why some of such leaves cannot be granted, the following additional factors will be taken into account to determine which of such candidates' leaves may be granted.
 - i) other professional development activities that the employees have participated in;
 - ii) the length of the employees' most recent continuous service at the University;
 - iii) the availability of external funding to support all or part of the employees' proposed PDL;
- (f) If more than one (1) employee from a Department, subdepartment, or programme area is an eligible employee whose PDL would otherwise have been granted, but the Employer is unable, with the cooperation of the employees in that Department, subdepartment, or programme area, or otherwise, to arrange suitable and reasonable economical replacements for the periods of the proposed leaves to maintain satisfactory program delivery in that Department, subdepartment, or programme area, the second and subsequent eligible employees may have their PDL requests deferred.
- (g) During a PDL, an employee shall be entitled to receive salary support as follows:

Years of Continuous Service	% of Regular Salary less than eight (8) years	75%
eight (8) years or more but less than ten (10) years	85%
ten (10) years and over	100%

Where the PDL is for a short term compressed course of approximately one (1) month's duration, and the eligible employee is otherwise not entitled to 100% salary support, additional salary support shall be considered.

Such support, together with any external funding obtained, for example, from a granting agency or industry, to support all or part of the PDL, shall not, unless there are exceptional circumstances, exceed the employee's normal regular salary during the period of such leave (the employee is obligated to report to the University all such external funding).

Employees on PDL will continue to accrue seniority and pay union dues and, subject to approval of the benefit carriers, have benefits and pension coverage upon making the usual premium contributions.

- (h) Upon completion of the PDL, the employee is required:
- i) to return and work for the Employer for a period at least equal to twice the duration of the PDL;
 - ii) to provide a written report on the PDL including making a presentation thereon within the University as the employee's School Dean may determine.
- (i) All applicants for PDL will be notified in writing by the appropriate official of the University as to the disposition of their applications for PDL as soon as is reasonably practicable bearing in mind the need to treat fairly the entire group of applicants for PDL. Where a PDL is denied or deferred, such notification shall contain reasons for the denial.
- (j) The University may propose a particular PDL for an employee; however, the employee shall not be obligated to take such PDL except where a PDL is necessary to obtain qualifications the obtaining of which were part of an employee's initial terms of appointment. Where the University determines that a particular PDL is necessary to meet programme or other like needs, the employee concerned will not unreasonably withhold his agreement to take such PDL. In the case where the University proposes a PDL, the University shall determine the required qualifications and, in consultation with the employee, the most appropriate time and most cost effective means to obtain same. During such PDL, the employee's regular salary, benefits and pension shall be maintained as if he were in active employment at the University and not on leave. In addition, the University shall pay the full cost of the educational programme and the employee's reasonable travel and living expenses associated therewith upon provision of suitable receipts.

- (k) In the event that, solely for budgetary or other operational limitations, employee PDL applications are denied or deferred, such employees shall be given preferential consideration in the next succeeding year if they apply in that year.
- (l) The University shall advise the Union in writing of the names of the successful applicants for PDL and the duration of their leaves.
- (m) The University may grant additional financial assistance to employees to participate in educational programmes at other institutions during a PDL;
- (n) The University may consider applications for PDL of duration in excess of twelve (12) months. If such PDL is granted, group benefits and pension coverage may be continued for the employee if approved by the carriers of such benefits and pension plans upon the employee making the usual premium contributions. For clarity purposes, the employee who is on PDL will accumulate seniority rights for only the first twelve (12) months the employee is receiving PDL.

17.04 Conferences, Seminars and Workshops (referred to collectively for ease of reference as “conferences”)

Up to $20,000 in each fiscal year will be made available to finance employees’ attendance at conferences subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) The School Dean may grant any necessary leave together with financial assistance to eligible employees in his School to attend conferences relevant to the employee’s discipline, if budgetary, operational, and other relevant factors reasonably permit.
- (b) In assessing applications for attendance at such conferences priority shall be given to employees who are:
 - i) presenting a paper or report at the conference;
 - ii) participating on a panel at the conference;
 - iii) attending for the purpose of strategic advantage to the University.
- (c) The Dean shall advise employees of the disposition of their applications as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (d) The successful applicants shall provide a report concerning their activities and suitable receipts for expenses for which reimbursement is sought.

17.05 External Educational Assistance

Employees may apply to their School Deans for financial assistance to participate in external educational activities, e.g. programs and courses offered by educational institutions other than the University.

Article 18 - Group Benefits

18.01 Subject to the terms of the Plans, each continuing full-time employee in the bargaining unit shall participate in the following group benefits of the University:

- Supplementary Health and Dental
- Group Life Insurance
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment Insurance
- Long Term Disability
- Travel Insurance

Term employees holding appointments of eight (8) continuous months or more may participate in the University Supplementary Health and Dental coverage.

18.02 If the University proposes to change any of the foregoing group benefits, it will do so only after prior consultation with the Union.

18.03 Where a continuing full-time employee in the bargaining unit has been on long term disability for at least two (2) continuous years and the Employer determines it necessary to fill his/her position on a continuing full-time basis, the following shall apply:

- (a) the position shall be posted and/or filled by a continuing full-time employee in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement; and
- (b) if, within a further period of up to two (2) years, the employee returns from LTD, he shall resume in his/her former position and the employee who was appointed to perform the duties of the employee on LTD shall resume his status immediately prior to obtaining such appointment.

Article 19 - Employee Documentation

19.01 When a formal review of an employee's performance is made, the employee concerned shall be given an opportunity to discuss and then sign the review form in question to indicate that its contents have been read and understood, a copy of which shall be given to the employee.

19.02 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing relating to disciplinary action any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware of at the time of filing.

19.03 Notice of a disciplinary action which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee shall not be used in relation to any subsequent disciplinary action against that employee if four (4) years have elapsed since the disciplinary action referred to in such notice took place and no further disciplinary action has been recorded during that period.

- 19.04 Upon written request of an employee, and reasonable notice, the personal file for that employee may be made available at least once per year for his examination in the presence of the responsible administrator.
- 19.05 Documents submitted by third parties, which are deemed confidential by management and the author shall not be made available to the employee. Other documents submitted by third parties shall be available to the employee.

Article 20 - Discipline and Discharge

- 20.01 (a) No employee shall be disciplined or discharged except for just and sufficient cause.
- (b) Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee as part of an investigation that may result in disciplinary action, every reasonable effort shall be made to notify the employee in advance of the interview so that the employee, if he so desires, may contact and have present during the interview his steward. If the employee concerned is a steward, he shall have the right to have another representative of the Union present, if he so desires. Provided the Employer has acted in good faith, failure to have such steward present will not invalidate any disciplinary action taken against the employee.
- 20.02 Where an employee is disciplined by suspension without pay, or by discharge, the Employer shall, within two (2) weeks following the suspension or discharge, notify the employee and Local President in writing of the reasons for the suspension or discharge.
- 20.03 Under extenuating circumstances, an employee may be suspended immediately by his immediate supervisor.
- 20.04 Where an employee alleges that he has been suspended or discharged in violation of Article 20.01, he may within ten (10) days of the date on which he was notified in writing, or within twenty (20) days of the date of the suspension or discharge, whichever is later, invoke the grievance procedure, including provisions for arbitration, and for the purpose of a grievance, alleging violation of Article 20.01, he shall lodge his grievance at the final level of the grievance procedure.

Article 21- Resignation

- 21.01 If any employee desires to terminate his employment, he shall forward a letter of resignation to the Employer or delegated official not less than sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of termination, provided however that the Employer or delegated official may accept a shorter period of notice. An employee who fails to provide sixty (60) days notice of his intention to terminate his employment may have deducted from monies owed him by the Employer a sum equivalent to the salary payable to him for the period of notice which he failed to work.

Article 22 - Grievance Procedure

- 22.01 (a) For the purpose of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a claim by an employee concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of any clause in this Agreement.
- (b) Before invoking the formal procedure described in Article 22.03, the employee should first discuss the matter with her immediate management supervisor. At such discussion, the employee may have a steward present if so desired. The supervisor shall, within three (3) days of the discussion, provide his answer to the employee.
- (c) When any potential grievance has not been settled by the foregoing informal procedure, if the employee wishes to pursue the matter, the procedures specified in Article 22.03 shall apply.
- 22.02 (a) Where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement, or an arbitral award, an employee is not entitled to present the grievance unless he has the approval in writing of the Union, or is represented by the Union.
- (b) In each of the following steps of the grievance procedure, the designated respondents of the Employer shall arrange a meeting or meetings, with the employee and the responsible Union steward at the earliest mutually agreeable time, but not later than the time limit provided for in the applicable step of the grievance procedure.

22.03 Step One

If the employee or the Union wishes to initiate a grievance they shall, within fifteen (15) days of being aware of the event giving rise to the grievance, present the grievance in writing to the Dean or his designate. If the employee does not receive a reply or a satisfactory settlement within ten (10) days from the date on which he presented his grievance to the Dean or his designate, the employee may proceed to Step Two.

Step Two

Within ten (10) days from the expiry of the ten (10) day period referred to in Step One, the employee may present his grievance in writing to the Director, Human Resources or his designate.

The Director, Human Resources or his designate shall reply in writing to the employee within ten (10) days from the date the grievance was presented to him. - 22.04 In any case where the employee presents his grievance in person or, in any case in which a meeting is held on a grievance at any level, the employee shall be accompanied if he wishes, by a steward or other representative of the Union.
- 22.05 In determining the time in which any step under the foregoing proceedings is to be taken, Saturdays, Sundays and recognized holidays shall be excluded.
- 22.06 At the request of either party to this Agreement, it may be mutually agreed to extend, in writing, the time limits specified herein.
- 22.07 Where either party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer's Director, Human Resources or the Local's President, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of the date on which the matter giving rise to the grievance occurred. Where no satisfactory resolution of the dispute is reached, either party may, within a further thirty (30) days after such discussion, submit the dispute to arbitration in accordance with Article 23 of this Agreement.

Article 23 - Arbitration

- 23.01 Either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 22, notify the other party within twenty (20) days of the date the final reply in the grievance procedure was or should have been received, of its desire to refer the grievance to arbitration by giving written notice of such desire within this time limit.
- 23.02 Matters will ordinarily be heard by a single arbitrator. The party providing notice under Article 23.01 will include with the notice the names of two proposed arbitrators for consideration.

- (c) The two (2) appointees shall select a chairperson by mutual agreement.
- (d) In the event that the appointees are unable to agree upon a chairperson within seven (7) days then the chairperson shall be appointed by the Minister of Labour for Nova Scotia.

23.04 Board Procedures

The Board may determine its own procedure in accordance with the Trade Union Act, and shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. It shall hear and determine the difference or allegation, and shall make every effort to render a decision within thirty (30) days of its first meeting.

23.05 Decision of the Board

The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the chairman shall be the decision of the Board. The decision of the Arbitration Board shall be binding, final, and enforceable on the parties. The Board shall have the power to dispose of a discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable. However, the Board shall not have the power to change, alter, modify, or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement.

23.06 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Board's decision, either party may apply to the Chairman of the Arbitration Board to reconvene the board to clarify the decision which it shall make every effort to do within seven (7) days.

24.01 A Joint Committee ("JC") shall be established and will work cooperatively to deal with issues of common concern to both the Local and the Employer. The Committee shall not have jurisdiction over wages or any other matter of collective bargaining, including the administration of this Agreement. The Committee may make recommendations to the Parties, but it shall not have the power to bind either the Union or its members or the Employer to any decisions or conclusions reached in its discussions. The JC shall consist of a maximum of four (4) representatives from each side including an Employer's Human Resources Representative and the Local President as part of the Committee who shall alternate in presiding over its meetings.

- 24.02 The JC shall meet at the request of either party.

Article 45 – Distance Delivered Courses

45.01 For purposes of this article, Distance Delivered Courses refers to credit courses developed for and/or delivered to students predominantly “at a distance”, that is, where the instruction is received outside the CBU campus, classrooms and laboratories, including those delivered on-line.

(a) Distance courses may be taught as part of regular load or overload. Distance courses shall not be assigned without an Instructor’s and his/her Department’s consent, unless such Instructor was hired with the provision that distance delivery was to be part of the regular teaching workload. In such cases where consent is required, such consent shall not be unreasonably denied. Assignment of Distance courses will take into consideration factors such as the desires of Instructors, their familiarity with the required technology and due regard for course content and pedagogy.

- (b) These courses will be capped at a maximum agreed to by the Department and Dean(s) in consideration of the mode of delivery.
- (c) Approval for new distance related courses/programs follows regular institutional procedures for credit course/program approval prescribed by Senate and by the Board of Governors.
- (d) Departments, under the respective Dean(s), are responsible for quality assessment issues with regard to curriculum and course delivery for distance related courses. Regular Departmental process for vetting and approving all candidates for teaching of distance related courses apply. Distance related courses not developed at CBU must follow regular institutional procedures for course/program approval prescribed by Senate and by the Board of Governors.
- (e) If no current institutional department encompasses the area of specialization of a course/program, provisions for a structure to handle departmental issues will be proposed for approval by Senate and the Board of Governors.
- (f) Expenses recoverable from the Employer include, but are not limited to, mailing, travel, meals and accommodation, telephone costs, special materials. The agreement on the recovery of these and other related costs will be determined by the Instructor with the Dean(s) at the time of course assignment.

45.02 When an Instructor teaches such a course, it shall constitute part of the Instructor's normal workload or overload teaching assignment in accordance with Article 43 – Hours of Work, Standard Teaching Load, Course Relief.

- (a) A demonstrable significant increase in work arising from the development of a course delivered by distance will be recognized with financial remuneration or course relief, as determined before the work is undertaken.
- (b) No Instructor shall be obligated to teach a single course section combining one section of classroom delivery with one section of distance.

45.03 Upon request, Instructors delivering courses by distance will have appropriate professional development and technical support (within the fiscal limitations of the University) made available at no cost to the Instructor. Furthermore, the Instructor shall be notified of the resources available to him/her, associated with the course, before he/she agrees to teach the course.

45.04 Compensation for Distance Courses

Effective January 2014, where an assigned Distance Related Course is not part of the Instructor's regular workload; Instructors shall be compensated on overload stipend basis as per Article 44:

	Effective 1 January 2019	Effective 1 January 2020	Effective 1 January 2021
Course Development*	$714 per credit	$725 per credit	$736 per credit

Courses which have insufficient enrolment may be offered as a tutorial. Members teaching such tutorial classes shall receive 95% of the tuition paid by each student. The relevant School Dean, in consultation with the Registrar, must approve such a tutorial offering.

* Development of Distance Course outside of regular or normal course load.

Article 46 - Successor Rights

- 46.01 If the Employer sells or transfers its business, either within the jurisdiction of the Province of Nova Scotia or of the Government of Canada, it will fully comply with all of its legal obligations under the Nova Scotia Trade Union Act or the Canada Labour Code, whichever is applicable.

Article 47 - Term of Agreement

- 47.01 This Agreement shall be for the term November 1, 2018 ending on October 31, 2021; however all provisions of this Agreement shall, unless otherwise stated, be effective from the date of signing of this Agreement.

After October 31, 2021, this Agreement shall be automatically renewed thereafter for successive periods of twelve (12) months unless either party requests the negotiation of a new agreement by giving written notice to the other party within the two (2) month period preceding the date of expiry of the Agreement.

- 47.02 Where notice is given under Article 47.01:
- (a) the parties shall commence collective bargaining within fourteen (14) days after the notice is given, or within such further period as the parties may mutually agree; and
 - (b) the provisions of this Agreement or any renewal thereof, shall continue in force until a new agreement is signed, or the right to strike or lockout accrues, whichever first occurs.
- 47.03 Any change deemed necessary in this Agreement may be made by mutual agreement at any time during the life of this Agreement.
- 47.04 Salary scales, effective from November 1 in each year of the years 2018, 2019 and 2020 until October 31 of the next year, as per Schedule I – Qualifications and Salaries attached shall apply in each of those years.
