

COVID-19 Student Code of Conduct Addendum

Effective: August 20, 2020

Student's Impacted

1. Student conduct and behaviour related to federal, provincial, municipal and institutional (Cape Breton University) policies and regulations as it relates to global pandemic of Covid-19.
2. Student's failing to follow any regulations put forth as per above noted authorities.

Process

1. Violations to the regulations will be reviewed through the Student Affairs Office.
2. Decisions will be vetted through the President's Office and will not be appealable.

Sanctions

1. Sanctions may be as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct for Non-Academic Infractions found on the CBU Campus Safety website.
2. Sanctions may be imposed in addition to other fines issued by government.
3. Sanctions may include financial penalty placed on student account, holds on student account, and up to deregistration for failure to comply with regulations.