

IN.BUSINESS RECOMMENDATION FORM

In.Business: A Mentorship Program for Indigenous Youth is a high school mentorship program facilitated by Unama'ki College at Cape Breton University.

The goals of the In.Business program are as follows:

- To link Indigenous high school students with Indigenous business mentors.
- To explore business concepts through social media and current technology.
- To facilitate collaborative and interactive learning through in-person conferences.
- To help Indigenous youth see themselves as future business leaders.
- To introduce Indigenous high school students to post-secondary options.

You have been asked to provide a required reference for a student interested in participating in the program. Please complete the following recommendation form by October 12 and return to: nina_kent@cbu.ca or fax (902)563.1640

Name of Applicant: _____

Applicants' School: _____

Your assessment of the applicant will help us in our evaluation to determine their suitability for the program. To the best of your knowledge, please rate the student on the following:

Areas	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Attendance at school
Punctuality
Attitude
Maturity

How long have you known the applicant?

In what capacity do you know the applicant?

Why do you think the applicant should be chosen for this program? How would the applicant benefit from this program?

Do you feel the applicant is willing to devote the necessary time into this program? Students chosen will be expected to devote on average one hour per week to the program and attend two multi-day conferences (possibly out of province). Please explain your answer.

REFeree INFORMATION

Name: _____ Position: _____
Organization: _____ Email address: _____
Phone number: _____ Signature: _____

Feel free to attach any additional information about the applicant that may help in the selection process.

Please submit this recommendation by October 12, 2020 via email or fax to:

Nina Kent
General Manager In.Business, Cape Breton University
Nina_kent@cbu.ca
Office: (902) 563.1916 | Fax: (902)563.1640

