

2021 JAMES BRYSON (JB) MCLACHLAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Cape Breton University is pleased to offer the JB McLachlan Memorial Scholarship for the 2021-2022 academic year. James Bryson McLachlan established this award to honour the life and legacy of his grandfather of the same name, one of Cape Breton's and Canada's finest labour leaders. JB McLachlan was a Scottish immigrant and coal miner who arrived in Cape Breton in 1902 and helped lead District 26 of the United Mine Workers of America until he died in 1937.

Applicants must:

- Graduate from a Cape Breton high school
- Have a graduating average of at least 75%
- Be a first-year student entering full-time study in any program

*Note this award can be renewed for one additional year provided the award winner achieves a minimum academic average of 75% or greater while maintaining full-time status as defined by the Office of the Registrar.

To apply, submit:

- A completed 2021 JB McLachlan Memorial Scholarship application form.
