Shannon School of Business

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 2022

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.

Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix.
Ton histoire est une épopée,
Des plus brillants exploits.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Senate, Board of Governors, the faculty and staff, I share with you our warm congratulations on your graduation from Cape Breton University.

Despite the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic over the past several years, here you are. We are honoured to celebrate with you today as we mark this monumental occasion in your lives.

In fact, all that you have persevered through during your studies is a display of your tenacity, dedication and outstanding ability to overcome challenges. These are skills and abilities that you will carry with you and use in all that you do going forward.

As you celebrate convocation, take a moment to enjoy this special time with your fellow graduates. As you embark on the rest of your journey, the time you spent together will be a lasting memory of all you have overcome.

As you commence the next chapter of your life, wherever it may take you, I wish you the very best of luck. Congratulations to the spring graduating class of 2022!

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "D.C. Dingwall". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

David C. Dingwall, P.C., Q.C., ICD.D
President & Vice-Chancellor
Cape Breton University

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

To the Cape Breton University graduating class of 2022,

While your CBU journey has included a number of unexpected hurdles, you did not let the COVID-19 pandemic stop you from achieving your goals. You adapted, persevered, stayed strong and employed innovative strategies to overcome any challenges you faced. These are qualities that will serve you well wherever life takes you, and these are qualities that embody the spirit of Cape Breton University.

It is with this spirit, CBU pride and a strong education, that you are now ready to enter and succeed in today's highly competitive world. Every class you've taken, every assignment you've completed and every relationship you've built at CBU has prepared you for this very moment and for all those to come. As you embark on this new chapter of your life, do so with courage and with the excitement of possibility and opportunity.

On behalf of the Cape Breton University Board of Governors, we wish you good health, happiness and success as you begin your career as a graduate of CBU. We know you will make us proud every step of the way, and we hope, in the future, you will maintain some form of contact with your CBU family. We are confident, as I know each of you are, that as you enter the next phase of your career you are now ready to make a positive impact on the world at large. We are proud to be able to call you one of our own.

Robert Sampson, Q.C.
Chair
Cape Breton University Board of Governors

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

My heartfelt and admirable congratulations to each of you – the Cape Breton University Graduating Class of 2022.

I want you to know that I am extremely proud of each and every one of you for completing this great achievement, especially during such uncertain times. Convocation Day represents your success and acknowledges years of dedication and hard work. This is a day to celebrate what you have worked toward and looked forward to for many years. Today marks the end of one chapter and the beginning of another.

Many of you may be new to Canada and to Cape Breton. I am a first-generation Canadian and believe that your futures are bright. And to my fellow Cape Bretoners and to all graduates, no matter where you hail from, know that your options are endless when you endeavor to seek out opportunities and use creativity and innovation in all that you do.

When you leave CBU, some of you will begin your work life and others will continue your studies. I invite all of you to boldly follow your dreams into new horizons. Wherever your paths may take you, think proudly back to your CBU home and always be aware of the ever-changing world around you. Use your resources and tenacity to face challenges and to seize opportunities.

Today is not a goodbye but a time to say until we meet again. Today is a day to be proud, be strong and to show the world what you are made of.

Theid Dichioll Air Thoiseach – Perseverance Will Triumph.

Sincerely,

Chancellor Annette Verschuren

MESSAGE FROM THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

A heartfelt congratulations to our Cape Breton University Graduating Class of Spring 2022, and welcome to the Alumni Family. You did it, and we are so proud of you. We welcome you to a vast network of proud CBU Alumni around the world!

With more than 30,000 Alumni from more than 50 countries across the world, our reach is far. You are deeply connected to all of these people through your shared experiences at CBU. We're proud of your dedication and commitment to yourself and your education. You have reached an important milestone in a time unlike any other. To graduate amidst a global pandemic is admirable and memorable. Your hard work is paying off, and your future is bright.

Graduates of CBU are helping to change the world. CBU Alumni are a diverse and exciting family network that spans the globe and is rooted in deep tradition. You are the legacy of our Institution and an important part of our Alumni community. Your time here at CBU will shape and define your future and will always be a part of your journey to success.

As you embark on a new chapter, we encourage you to pause, reflect on your accomplishments, and know that you have the power to make an impact on the people around you. With your education, experience and strong will, you can be an agent of change in the world. Share your pride and wear your orange as a badge. Your time here will soon be a memory, but it will be a core memory that will forever stay with you.

We hope you'll share stories of the people you've met and the time you spent together, the knowledge you've gained and the future you have started to build here at Cape Breton University.

We encourage you to stay connected with CBU Alumni on Facebook and Instagram and by updating your contact info at cbu.ca/alumni so your new family can stay in touch with you.

Congratulations Class of 2022. Remember, as a member of our Alumni Family – you are ALWAYS ORANGE.

Sincerely,
Brandon Ellis
President, CBU Alumni Association Board of Directors

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

SENATOR DAN CHRISTMAS

Cape Breton University is delighted to honour and recognize a Mi'kmaw leader who is a trusted advisor and steward of the Mi'kmaw culture and who has dedicated his professional and personal life to ensure the Cape Breton Unama'ki community and beyond, are delivering on the commitment to truth and reconciliation, Senator Dan Christmas.

Senator Christmas has served in various leadership positions in the Mi'kmaw Nation of Nova Scotia. After serving five years as the Band Manager for the Community of Membertou, Senator Christmas worked for the Union of Nova Scotia Indians for 15 years –the last 10 as its Director. He was actively involved in the recognition and implementation of Mi'kmaw aboriginal and treaty rights in Nova Scotia.

From 1997 to 2016, Senator Christmas held the position as Senior Advisor with Membertou and had assisted the Chief and Council and its Management Team with the day-to-day operations of the community of Membertou. Senator Christmas also served as elected councillor for Membertou for 18 years.

Senator Christmas has been active in a number of international, national, provincial and local agencies in a wide range of fields including aboriginal and treaty rights, justice, policing, education, health care, human rights, adult training, business development and the environment.

Senator Christmas was awarded honorary degrees from Dalhousie University (2005), St. Mary's University (2019) and an honorary diploma from the Nova Scotia Community College (2016). In 2008, he was the recipient of the National Excellence in Aboriginal Leadership Award from the Aboriginal Financial Officers Association of Canada.

In December 2016, Senator Christmas was sworn in as an Independent Senator for Nova Scotia. Senator Christmas is the first Mi'kmaw senator to be appointed to the Senate of Canada. Senator Christmas also made national news when he opened a Senate office in his community of Membertou.

Today, Cape Breton University confers the degree Doctor of Letters, honoris causa, on a man whose reputation and respect for his work and advocacy for aboriginal and treaty rights, social justice and preservation and of the Mi'kmaw culture is known nationwide, Senator Dan Christmas.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DR. REX DUNN

Cape Breton University is delighted to honour and recognize a leading physician in the Cape Breton community whose dedication and commitment to his patients has built him a reputation of compassionate care and trusted skill, Dr. Rex Dunn.

Born in Halifax, NS, Dr. Rex Dunn has practiced surgery for more than 43 years, starting in 1979. He has dedicated his career to advancing vascular care at the Cape Breton Regional Hospital and has cared for thousands in need of vascular care in the region.

Dr. Dunn gained his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Acadia University in biology and a Ph.D in zoology from the University of British Columbia. In 1975, Dr. Dunn was accepted into Dalhousie Medical School, where his interest in general surgery and vascular surgery began.

Dr. Dunn has held numerous positions throughout his career within Nova Scotia Health. These positions included Chief of Staff of the Cape Breton Regional Hospital, Vice President of Medicine of the Cape Breton District Health Authority, Governor of the American College of Surgeons and President of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Nova Scotia, just to name a few.

Aside from his work as a physician, Dr. Dunn has held volunteer positions that have had lasting impacts on the community of Cape Breton. Dr. Dunn has served as Chair of the YMCA Cape Breton Capital Campaign, Vice-Chair of the CBU Board of Governors, member of the Sunrise Rotary and member of the Cancer Care at Home Campaign Cabinet for the Cape Breton Regional Hospital Foundation. Dr. Dunn is also known through the community for his beautiful singing voice and is an active member of the Cape Breton Chordsmen and a member of the quartet, Quattro.

One cause very near to his heart are the missions he, with other physicians and experienced OR nurses, all with a powerful desire to give back, has taken to Guatemala. These missions provide care to people who would not otherwise be able to afford the operations they need to live an everyday life.

Dr. Dunn is known for his leadership and is a proponent of teamwork and collaboration while providing care to his patients.

Currently, Dr. Rex Dunn resides in Sydney River with his wife, Heather. Together they have two sons and four grandchildren.

Today, Cape Breton University confers the degree Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, on a man who has been vital to the establishment and growth of the vascular care program in Cape Breton and whose care and charisma make him one of the leading physicians in the province, Dr. Rex Dunn.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

BETTE MACDONALD | MAYNARD MORRISON

Cape Breton University is delighted to honour and recognize two individuals who have spent their careers making audiences from across the country laugh in delight, while sharing the Cape Breton culture through satire and comedy and who have dedicated their work to the preservation of performing arts, Bette MacDonald and Maynard Morrison.

Bette and Maynard started their careers in the performing arts at Cape Breton University's Boardmore Theatre. Known widely for their roles in the well-loved The Rise & Follies of Cape Breton Island and the ever-popular The Cape Breton Summertime Revue, the pair have been known to keep their audiences in hysterics for entire performances.

Together, the husband and wife duo are legends in the performing arts sector, and have both found individual success throughout their careers.

Bette MacDonald is a Gemini award-winning actor, a Nova Scotia Screen Award winner and a multiple Canadian Screen Award nominee. Her television credits include The Bette Show, This Hour Has 22 Minutes and Made In Canada. For eight seasons, she played school secretary Trudy Walsh, on the hit CBC television series Mr. D. Her stage acting career began in The Boardmore Playhouse at CBU, and she has since toured the country in various shows including The Cape Breton Summertime Revue. She stars in, and is co-writer, along with her brother, Ed Macdonald, Tis The Season, a holiday-themed show that began as a one-night stand fifteen years ago and has since toured Nova Scotia and beyond. Currently, Bette is a member of the wildly popular, Island Girls, sharing the stage with Jenn Sheppard, Lucy MacNeil and Heather Rankin.

Maynard Morrison is co-founder of The Rise And Follies Of Cape Breton Island and The Cape Breton Summertime Revue. He has toured the country as a member of The Summertime Revue and as a member of The Fabulous Doorknobs, with bandmates: Luke Wintermans, Max MacDonald and Kenzie MacNeil. For ten years, Maynard was a favourite at the Halifax Comedy Fest and continues his comedic career with various shows including Tis The Season, with his wife, Bette MacDonald. Maynard has made guest appearances on radio in Madly Off In All Directions and Basic Black and on television series including Mr. D, Rideau Hall and The Fabulous Doorknob's TV Show. For forty years, Maynard taught drama at Sydney Academy High School and created original shows with his students that were featured as part of CBU's annual festival of plays.

Today, Cape Breton University confers the degree Doctor of Letters, honoris causa, on two Cape Bretoners who have entertained thousands with their brilliant humour and quick-witted maritime satirical comedy, Bette MacDonald and Maynard Morrison.

CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY MACE, CHAIN OF OFFICE AND CHAIRS

The Mace, given by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schwartz in memory of Mrs. Rose Schwartz, was designed and created by Cape Breton's own jeweller and craftsman, Darryl MacLeod. The shaft of the Mace is formed by a portion of an oak window from Moxham's Castle. The top of the ornate crown is adorned with four diamonds donated by Dr. Robert Morgan in memory of his wife Barbara, who died in 1993.

The President's Chain of Office, also designed and created by Mr. MacLeod, speaks boldly of Cape Breton University and Cape Breton. The Chain was commissioned in honour of Cape Breton University's twentieth anniversary and was donated by the partners and staff of Deloitte & Touche in honour of Mr. James W. Miller, former managing partner.

Silver thistles and gold fiddles join the Chain. The Chain also has a silver fleur de lis, a replica of a coin from the "Chameau" treasure, and a silver medallion of the Cross and Crescent of the Mi'kmaw flag. CBU's Coat of Arms shares the focal point with the Great Seal of Cape Breton. The Chain is designed to represent our ties with the French and Mi'kmaw cultures, as well as our strong Celtic ties with the Scottish, Irish and Breton settlers.

Cape Breton's best known furniture maker, Leo MacNeil, crafted two chairs for our institution. The larger of the two chairs is used by the Chancellor during Convocation ceremonies. The back of the chair has the Cape Breton University Coat of Arms hand engraved and painted. The second chair is used by the President. Both chairs have been constructed from Cape Breton oak, with green velvet seats to complement the University's colours and the green of Cape Breton.

WE RISE AGAIN

Dr. Leon Dubinsky

When the waves roll on over the waters,
And the ocean cries,
We look to our sons and daughters
To explain our lives—
As if a child could tell us why
That as sure as the sunrise,
As sure as the sea,
As sure as the wind in the trees...

Chorus:

We rise again in the faces of our children;
We rise again in the voices of our song;
We rise again in the waves out on the ocean—
And then we rise again.

When the light goes dark with the forces of creation
Across a stormy sky,
We look to reincarnation
To explain our lives —
As if a child could tell us why
That as sure as the sunrise,
As sure as the sea,
As sure as the wind in the trees...

Chorus (twice)
