

Keith P. Maher CPA, CA

Mr. Maher has been a practicing professional accountant for over 40 years. He was a Partner in the firm Deloitte for more than 25 year before his retirement in 2013. During his career he held several senior positions including Practice Leader, Halifax Office and Professional Practice Director for Atlantic Canada. He was both a Tax and Audit Partner during his career with Deloitte. Since retiring from Deloitte he operates his own accounting and consulting company. His practice and experience covered a wide range of industries and sectors including manufacturing, construction, universities and health authorities. His practice included both private and publicly listed companies as well as not-for-profit entities.