

Entry Guidelines for: ProletariArt 2023 The People's Art Exhibit

All members of the Cape Breton Community are invited to submit artwork for inclusion in ProletariART 2023: The People's Art Exhibit held at the CBU Art Gallery from September 15, 2023 – February 16, 2024.

ProletariART is a non-juried exhibition. All artwork submitted within the guidelines below will be accepted and displayed subject to available gallery space. Exhibitors are encouraged to submit their artwork early during the drop-off period to avoid disappointment.

Submissions can be dropped off at the CBU Art Gallery between Monday July 31 – Friday August 18, 2023 (Mondays – Fridays only), 10:00 am – 4:00 pm. The final date for submissions to the exhibition will be Friday August 18, 2023 4:00 pm.

- Works may be submitted by any member of the CBU community or general public.
- Any works submitted to ProletariART 2019 will be automatically accepted for exhibition with the exception of offensive material.
- There is no submission fee.
- Works may be presented in any media that is safe to exhibit (e.g. painting, drawing, photography, performance, digital media, video, sculpture).
- Each participant may contribute one work of art for the exhibition.
- The CBU Art Gallery will be responsible for all curatorial and installation decisions for the exhibition.
- Works will be on display for the duration of the exhibition and may not be removed from the gallery until Monday February 19, 2024 (10:00 – 4:00 pm). No work can be withdrawn or swapped once submitted.
- As a public gallery, Cape Breton University Art Gallery does not facilitate the sale or hire of artwork. Purchase enquiries will be directed to the artist or designated agent.
- Works must be submitted in 'ready to exhibit' condition (framed or ready to display in a safe and professional manner in a public gallery with required hardware affixed). Professional framing is not necessary, but works must be presentable (i.e. do not submit a drawing on loose paper). Hanging wire is preferred for work that is framed (as opposed to alligator hooks or d-hooks).
- Works that are not ready to exhibit or deemed not presentable will not be accepted.
- Participants are responsible for picking up their own work after the exhibition ends and the Gallery is not responsible for storing any work not picked up by Friday February 19, 2023, 4:00 pm.
- Each submission must be supplemented by a completed submission form. Works will not be accepted without this form.
- For insurance purposes each submission must be assigned a $ value (with a min. value of $1).

ProletariArt 2019: The People's Art Exhibit
Submission Form
Submission Deadline: Friday August 18, 2023, 4:00 pm

This form must be submitted with your artwork when you drop it off at CBU Art Gallery. You may submit one work of art only. Please write in clear and legible block capital letters. Gallery visitation is always free to all members of the public, campus parking costs $1 per day

Name:

Signature:

---

Telephone:

E-Mail:

---

Address:

---

Postal Code:

---

Are you:

CBU Student

Staff/Faculty

Alumni

Public

Your information as it will appear on label:

(please write clearly)

Artist Name: _____

Title: _____

Year of Production: _____

Media: (ie: oil paint on canvas, wood sculpture, mixed media etc.)

_____

For gallery purposes only, the following information is private:

Value of Work:

$ _____

Size: _____

- Each artwork in the exhibition will be labelled with the information provided in box above. No additional information will be included on labels. Once this information is submitted no changes will be made.
- No business cards, signage, or promotional material will be displayed with the artworks or in the gallery.
- As a public gallery, Cape Breton University Art Gallery does not facilitate the sale or hire of artwork. Please indicate below if you would like the gallery to notify you of purchase enquiries.

I wish to be contacted in response to purchase enquiries.

I do not wish to be contacted in response to purchase enquiries.