

PROGRAMS OF INTEREST

As an Atlantic Canadian leader in post-secondary education, Cape Breton University (CBU) offers distinctive undergraduate programs of study through the Canadian International College (CIC) Associate Campus in Cairo, Egypt.

With the option to expand or finish your studies at CBU through a Transfer or Exchange opportunity, you will be inspired, encouraged and supported, allowing you to excel in both your academic and personal journeys at CBU.

Currently home to more than 5,500 students representing more than 55 countries from around the world, CBU is a truly diverse learning environment that thrives as a global community. With a student experience stretching far beyond the classroom, CBU's energetic campus is filled with friendly students, faculty and staff and surrounded by beautiful landscapes along Canada's east coast.

CIC is the sole provider of Canadian higher education in Egypt since 2004 providing a Dual Option where students may receive two degrees; one which will be accredited by the Egyptian Ministry of Higher Education, and a second by CBU in Nova Scotia, Canada upon meeting the program requirements.
